Attendance Comment

In South Australia, all children and young people must be in school from 6 years to 16 years old. They must attend a government or non-government school full time. From age 16 to 17 however, young people must attend school or an approved learning program (such as an apprenticeship, traineeship, accredited course or university). Schools and parents must encourage and support students to come to school every day. Parents and caregivers must make sure their child is enrolled in a school, and attends school all day and everyday it is open, unless a child is sick or has an approved exemption. Teachers and leaders actively follow up when a student misses school, including recording all absences and non-attendance. All schools in South Australia have local attendance procedures governed under the Education and Children's Services Regulations 2020.

2023 Governing Council Report

Another school year has drawn to a close and once again, the year has presented plenty of challenges for the staff, students, families and wider community of our school. From the flood recovery to the recent economic pressures that high inflation has placed on us, as a community we have certainly felt the hardship.

It was pleasing to see the enduring spirit of all who have persevered despite these difficult conditions and in doing so, showing great resilience and determination to succeed and achieve despite the hurdles facing us.

The staff of the school has to be acknowledged for all the hard work they have put in this year. It has been a particularly difficult time for the school leadership group to fill teaching positions and staff have taken on additional responsibilities to cover those gaps. There have been some notable achievements by many of our students over the year, with many of these recognised in this magazine.

This year also saw some great initiatives being brought onto the school campus. The Paediatric Clinic, sponsored by the Renmark Medical Clinic, and the inaugural assessment days with Flinders University attending at the school and inviting senior students to be assessed along methodologies other than an ATAR score, creating another pathway for students to obtain tertiary education.

A big thank you to our Governing Council members Megan Petersen, Kerril Vowles, Deanne Flaherty, Andrea Logos, Karen DiCerbo, Sally Kroemer, Laura Strout, Sean Leesue and Kimberly Wegner. Also, to David Sims our Local Council representative, and staff members, Wayne Elliott, Jasmine Sotiroulis and principal, Mat Evans.
