Governing Council Report

2024 was a successful year for Oak Valley Anangu School. School enrolments were steady with enrolment numbers being slightly up compared to 2023. Thank you to all staff for their planning and resilience to ensure our wider community was able to engage in our special events such as bush days, a ski trip to Mt Hotham, an aquatics camp at Scotdesco and Blue Lake, assemblies and many more community and school-based activities. I would like to thank the new members that joined our Governing Council committee in 2024 and thank our members who have been part of our committee for multiple years. I would like to thank all our Governing Council members for their hard work and dedication in 2024 and I look forward to seeing both new and familiar faces next year.

Attendance Comment

In South Australia, preschool attendance is not compulsory, but it is strongly encouraged. Preschool gives children the best opportunity to develop skills, which prepare them for school. These benefits include establishing positive routines and habits, friendships and connections as well as developing communication, problem-solving and creative skills. All children are entitled to access a preschool program over 4 terms the year before they start school.

In South Australia, all children and young people must be in school from 6 years to 16 years old. They must attend a government or non-government school full time. From age 16 to 17 however, young people must attend school or an approved learning program (such as an apprenticeship, traineeship, accredited course or university). Schools and parents must encourage and support students to come to school every day. Parents and caregivers must make sure their child is enrolled in a school, and attends school all day and everyday it is open, unless a child is sick or has an approved exemption. Teachers and leaders actively follow up when a student misses school, including recording all absences and non-attendance. All schools in South Australia have local attendance procedures governed under the Education and Children's Services Regulations 2020.
